

Group Lockout Box - Lockout Tagout Safety Ltd

Manufacturer: Lockout Tagout Safety Ltd

Model: Type 2

Description: It is a specialized security tool used in industrial Lockout/Tagout (LOTO) procedures to ensure worker safety during equipment maintenance. Each technician working on the machine attaches their own padlock to one of the secondary locks. The box cannot be opened—and the machine's keys cannot be accessed—until every single person has finished their task and removed their individual lock.
